NEWS OF THE DAY

Alexander Brown, the widely known polo player of Philadelphia, fell with his hydroaeroplane into the Delaware River at Essington, below Philadelphia yesterday, and was drowned.

"I just wanted to see a big fire," was the explanation offered by 8-year-old Benjamin Bojarachi of New York, for pouring kerosene oil on 5-year-old Veronica Brandes and pushing her into a bonfire, causing the child's death. The boy is under arrest at the Children's Society Home.

Twenty battalions of Austrian infantry which took part in the attack against Russian forces at Kirlibaba in the Carpathians were cut to pieces in the fighting on October 21. The eighty-first regiment of infantry was almost completely annihilated. Out of one regiment of 850 men there were only 160 survivors.

A dispatch from Santo Domingo says in an engagement between American troops and Dominican rebels yesterday, Gen. Raman Batisti and several Americans, including two United States officers, were killed and one American officer wounded.

That Frank Poschl, the Marlboro, Md., farmer, whose charred body was found in the ashes of a brush-fire near Forestville, Md., on Sunday, cremated himself in a fit of remorse over what he believed were unpardonable acts he had committed during his lifetime, is the startling new theory developed by Prince George County authorities. One woman, who was intimately acquainted with Poschl, said he once remarked to her: "I have committed the unforgivable sin, and if it wasn't so inhuman I'd crawl under a burning brush-pile to get that sin off my mind."

Over 1,200 miles of telegraph wire, and performed through proxies in the persons of two telegraph operators, Private Byron J. Linhart, Company B, Second Missouri Infantry, stationed at Laredo, Tex., and Miss Ruby Swarts, in her home town of Butler, Mo., were married last night according to the rites of the Episcopal church, wherein both bride and groom handled messages direct.

SAVES DAUGHTER

Advice of Mother no Doubt Prevents Daughter's Untimely End.

Ready, Ky.—"I was not able to do anything for nearly six months," writes Mrs. Laura Bratcher, of this place, "as I was down in bed for three months."

I cannot tell you how I suffered with my head, and with nervousness and generally troubles.

Our family doctor told my husband he could not do me any good, and he let me give it up. We tried another doctor but he did not help me.

At last, my mother advised me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. I thought it was no use for I was nearly dead and nothing seemed to do me any good. But I took eleven bottles, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own washing.

"I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. My weight has increased and I look the picture of health."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, get a bottle of Cardui. Delay is dangerous. We know it will help you, for it has helped many thousands of other weak women in the past 50 years.

An official War Department order warning all army officers to keep their hands off politics was received at Fort Sam Houston yesterday.

The order was signed by Secretary Baker, and it caused intense indignation among the officers there. It is customary, they said, for the President to admonish postmasters and other Civil Service employees to keep out of politics, but it is the first time in history that such an order has been extended to include the army.

The capture of the Roumanian town of Rashova, in Dobruja, on the Danube below Tchernavoda, and of Medjidie, on the Tchernovoda-Constanza railroad, is announced in Berlin today. The army of Field Marshal von Mackensen has taken prisoners more than 6,700 Roumanians and Russians.
